

Search for Teacher's Day

Introduction to Teacher's Day: Teachers play a major role in building societies and the advancement of all humanity, because they build generations of scientists, doctors, professors and engineers who build countries, and teachers sacrifice their lives in order to build future generations. Therefore, a day must be dedicated to honoring them and expressing respect and appreciation for their efforts. made on the runways of science and civilization.

Presentation: Every year the whole world celebrates Teacher's Day on AD, in ١٩٩٤ the fifth of October. This day was adopted to celebrate in AD recommendation made on that day by ١٩٦٦ commemoration of the UNESCO and the United Nations, which recommended teachers and their rights and determine their working conditions. Idealism, Teacher's Day is focused on recognizing the efforts and sacrifices of these heroes, and highlighting them to obtain all their rights.

Conclusion of a search for Teacher's Day: In the end, we must know that the importance of Teacher's Day stems from the importance of science in our lives, and we must give this day its due, and give teachers the appreciation and honor they deserve at every time and place.

